

Update 3 “AMRA 2015 – Auckland”:
9 Recreation Drive, Birkenhead, Auckland, New Zealand

Welcome to the third update for AMRA 2015 to be held in Birkenhead, Auckland over Queens Birthday of 2015. (Friday 29th May to Monday 1st June)

Thank you all for your rapid responses for registrations of interest and to those that have booked accommodation and flights already. We have added some nearby accommodation sources on our AMRA 2015 webpage: <http://www.nsmrc.org.nz/amra2015>

The AMRA 2015 team can happily report that we have booked our venues and have meals and catering arranged. I had hoped to include the registration form in this update, but we have decided to open an additional AMRA bank account and once that is done, the form will be sent out. Here is a teaser of the form:

Ladies rep (Carol) update: Subject to partner bookings, we have a minibus and driver available. Carol has arranged a Saturday morning partner tour to the Devonport Navy museum which has had 400,000 visitors since first opening <https://www.facebook.com/torpedobaynavymuseum>. The Sunday morning tour is the Auckland museum located in one of Auckland's most iconic heritage buildings in Parnell. You might note that these are next to two of our more popular shopping locations if you choose to do so.

A draft program guide has been made and should be available in the New year.

We are busy sourcing items for the Registration bags and are in the final stages of identifying items for procurement of which Hobby City has kindly sponsored us in part <http://www.hobbycity.co.nz/>

Clinic coordinator Mark Jackson has received a wide variety of interesting clinic presentations, and we are sure you will find something to interest you. A list of clinics will be forthcoming in future updates.

We are now switching focus to layout operators and trade stand providers who may be feeling neglected up to this time as we have been busy with venues and catering. There is a fine lineup of layouts available so far and still a few more people to contact. We look forward to publishing trade stand information and layout information in the near future.

I expect to be sending another short update prior to Christmas which will include the registration form and hopefully some layout and trade stand teasers.

Happy modeling,

Regards
Ian Hutton
